ORDINATION OF DEACONS CONGRATULATION AND GOD BLESS

Martin (Marty) Bachman, our former intern, was ordained a transitional deacon on Saturday, April 26, at St Peter-in-Chains Cathedral. The ceremony was very impressive. Marty completes his fourth year of studies in mid-May. His third year was his intern year (2006-2007), spent at Assumption Parish. His final year of studies while a deacon will culminate in his ordination to the priesthood next May. His official title is now Rev. Mr. Martin Bachman.

There are three levels of priesthood: deacon, priest and the fullness of priesthood in the bishop. All deacons, permanent and transitional deacons, share in the priesthood. They are ordained for service, leadership and charity.

I would like to thank the people of Assumption who came out on Saturday to see this event. I'm sure everyone who was present saw the smile on Marty's face and wished him well. He will be here regularly for weekends at Assumption for another year before he is ordinate a Priest. Please keep Marty in your prayers as his journey continues.

YOU SHOULD KNOW!

It's official! Our Lady of Grace's mascot will be the Eagles. School colors will be light blue, dark blue and white. Blue, of course is the Blessed Virgin Mary's color, and most fitting for our school patroness.

Dear Padre

Why do we say certain prayers with the rosary?

Dear Padre,

Why do we pray the Apostles' Creed, Hail Mary, and Our Father at the beginning of the rosary?

George,

Dear George,

The rosary is a very rich prayer in the Catholic Church's treasury. It originated from the Church's liturgical prayer, which used the 150 psalms of the Old Testament, and developed into a way of prayer for people who couldn't read or who didn't have full access to the Bible. The 150 psalms were later replaced with simple, easily memorized prayers such as the Our Father and the Hail Mary. Additions were made over the centuries, and the rosary's current form took shape in the sixteenth century.

The prayers used in the rosary (Apostles' Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary) are considered foundational prayers Christians need to know. We begin with the Apostles' Creed which says our prayer centers on the mystery of God, who transformed the world through Christ's incarnation, life, death, and resurrection. The Our Father focuses us on the contemplative task of prayer. Through the three Hail Mary's we ask God to strengthen our faith, hope, and charity, the three theological virtues in any Christian's life.

The rosary focuses us as we make our way through key mysteries in the lives of Christ, Mary, and the Church. The repetitive use of very common, well-known prayers helps draw us into this great act of contemplative prayer.

The Padre,
Father John Schmidt, C. Ss.R.
